Literature Resource Center provides a variety of easy-to-use options:

- With the default Author Search, you can find author biographies, bibliographies and full-text criticism of an author's works and literary career.
- With Title Search, you can identify specific works of literature and find related critical essays and author biographies.
- With the Authors by Type Search, you can find major authors associated with selected genres, literary movements, time periods and/or particular themes in literature. Also find authors by nationality or ethnicity.
- With the Literary-Historical Timeline, you can retrieve lists of major events within specified ranges of dates from Classical Antiquity to the present day.
- With the Keyword Search, you can find essays on a variety of literary topics.
- With the Advanced Search, you can design your own customized searches.

Onscreen instructions are clear and easy-to-follow. Onscreen help, a research guide and an encyclopedia of literature are available at all times during online searching.
