Find It

Go to www.ccls.org>Databases (on left)>P> Philadelphia Inquirer 1997 – Current (one day delay)> Newspaper Source Plus. Enter your search term(s) in the search box and Philadelphia Inquirer in the Publications box.

Browse It

To browse the Philadelphia Inquirer, enter Philadelphia Inquirer in the Publication box and select a date or a range of dates. Click Search. On the results page, click the drop down menu after the word Relevance to rearrange the results by date. Choose a different Page Option for the results, if desired. Click the article's title.

Search It

In Basic or Advanced Search, enter a term or terms. Under Search modes, select Boolean/Phrase if you want to use AND, OR or NOT.

- Alternately, select Find all my search terms if you want AND to be placed between all your terms.
- Select Find any of my search terms if you want OR to be placed between all your terms.
- Select SmartText Searching to enter up to 5000 characters including spaces. Use this if you have part of an article and want to find the whole article.
- Use quotation marks around phrases.
- Use W[x] for word combinations where word order matters. Ex. Mayor W2 Michael Nutter will bring up Mayor Michael Nutter or Mayor Nutter.
- Use N[x] when the order of the words doesn't matter. Ex City Council N10 budget
- Use parentheses to control the order in which terms are searched. Those inside the parentheses are searched first. Ex. Philadelphia and (wage tax or property tax)
- Use the wildcard? for one letter. Ex.J??? for John or Jack
- Use# for zero or one letter. Ex. colo#r for color or the British, colour.
- Use * for alternate endings. Ex. compute* for computer or computing
